Monday is viewed by many to be the "worst" day of the week, as it marks the return to work following the weekend, when most full-time employees are given two days off. Most students attend school in the morning and return home in the afternoon (usually from about eight until three or seven until two).

Last week my parents went to London. They had already been once, but this time they enjoyed themselves much more. They stayed in a very comfortable Hotel, near to a shopping center and a multiplex cinema. They went to see the Crown jewels and for the first time they had lunch in a typical English pub.

I live in a house near the mountains. I have two brothers and one sister, and I was born last. My father teaches mathematics, and my mother is a nurse at a big hospital. My sister is a nervous girl, but she is very kind. My grandmother also lives with us. She came from Italy when I was two years old.

Lucas goes to school every day of the week. He has many subjects to go to each school day: English, art, science, mathematics, gym, and history. His mother packs a big backpack full of books and lunch for Lucas.

His first class is English, and he likes that teacher very much.

The next class is mathematics, which most of the students just call math. The teacher is very nice and helpful. His fourth class is gym. It is just exercising.

History is his last class of the day and Lucas has a hard time staying awake. Many lessons are boring, and he is very tired after doing gym.

"Good morning, I have to take the bus which leaves at 1 p. m. , but I don't know the way to the station. Can you help me?"

- "Of course, it's simple. It takes 5 minutes on foot. Keep going straight in this direction, at the traffic lights turn right and you will immediately see the bus station in front of you."

"Today there is no sun and it is not even hot; I do not want to go to the beach in this weather. What do you suggest I do?"

- "If you like cycling, there are many cycle paths for nice tours; or by bus you can reach interesting places in the surroundings. Alternatively, there are motorboats offering excursions in the lagoon."

Last night I had a barbecue at my house, and among the guests was a guy who owns a sailboat. He offered me a nice boat trip next Sunday along the coast and I really think I'll go. I hope I don't get seasick: I would definitely ruin everyone's day and I would be very sorry.

My brother was in a car accident last week. He was riding his bicycle on Via Roma: a car came out of the underground parking, without stopping, and hit him. He broke his arm in the fall, but luckily he was wearing the helmet that protected his head. The police checked with the instrument whether both drivers had been drinking alcohol. They explained to me that they are obliged to do so in the event of an accident.

I'm sorry, the road is closed to traffic at night, it's a pedestrian area and you can't drive around with motor vehicles. To reach your hotel you will have to take the alternative route. After the fishing port turn on the first street on the left: after about 500 meters you will reach Piazza Marco Polo. Cross it and turn right into Via Roma: your hotel will be located after the traffic lights, on the right side.
